R. W. (Inky) Gill, of Petersburg, was elected captuln of the Richmona College baseball team for the season of 1911 Monday afternoon in a meeting of the College Athletic Association. Gill played shortstop on the Spider team this season, and made a first-class record. He is the hardest hitter on the team,

Gill is the first man in a number of years to be elected captain of the Spider team the way. Gill is the hardest hitter on the team,

Gill is the first man in a number of years to be elected captain of the Spider team after he had played only one season. His work with the squad this season, however, showed that he was the most capable man for the position, and he was elected unaulmously. It is expected that the Spiders will have a large portion of the 1910 squad back next season, and the prospects for a rattling good team are bright.

SEMI-PRO GAME THIS AFTERNOON

Hampton and Collegians to Try Conclusions in Broad Street Park, Beginning at 4:30.

Park, Beginning at 4:30.

The Richmond Collegians, who claim the city championship, will meet the Hampton team, of the Peninsula League, this afternoon at half-past 4 o'clock in the Broad Street Park. Both teams have so far during the season put up a most excellent game of base-hall and the exhibition is expected to be fast and interesting.

The Hampton team is a semi-professional club, which has made a first-class record d'ith the teams in the Peninsular League, and is now leading by a good margin. The team will arrive in Richmond to-day from Hampton.

The Collegian team is composed of ex-college players, some of whom were famous in the State only a few seasons ago. It is expected that the team will be strengthened this afternoon by the presence of Bowe, catcher on the University of Virginia team this season, and Sitterding, shortstop and next season's captain of the Georgetown team.

The line-ups follow:
Collegians—Filtpatrick and Wright, Pitchers; Clarke and Bowe, catchers; Cake, shortstop; Ford, first base; Righardson, second base; Collins, third base; Buchanan, centre field: Chearn, second base; Lewis, first base; Jackson, pitcher; Land, left field; Chearn, second base; Lewis, first base; Jackson, pitcher; Land, left field; Ceistil, shortstop; Brittingham, esticher.
